

The 9th Asian Workshop on Molecular Spectroscopy (AWMS)

The 9th AWMS will be held at the Coogee Bay Hotel, in Sydney Australia from 9-12 December, 2025. Hosted by UNSW Sydney, the event will take place at one of Sydney's most famous surf beaches, on the South Pacific Ocean.

The workshop will feature Plenary, Invited and Contributed talks; and poster sessions dedicated to molecular spectroscopy (experiment and theory) in the broadest sense.

We look forward to welcoming you in Sydney.
